

International economic forum to be held in Lviv Oct 1-3

July18 19:59

The Seventh International Economic Forum is to be held in Lviv Oct 1-3. The forum titled “Partnership to Open Possibilities” will focus on the cooperation between business and government. The forum has been initiated by the Lviv city council, oblast administration, and the Institute of European Regions (IRE), (Austria), Lviv city council July 18 press service report says.

For the first time, the forum organizers include foreign partners. Among the items on the forum agenda are private and state partnership, transregional cooperation, development of transport infrastructure, regional and local tourism and the role of banks.

The organizers want to invite several scores of important participants from the EU countries.