

Dr. Stefan EDER, Managing Regional Partner, DLA Weiss-Tessbach, Vice-Chairman of the Institute of the Regions of Europe (IRE)

Dr. Stefan Eder studied law and information systems and was admitted as an attorney in Vienna in 1992. He was also admitted to practice as a foreign attorney in the Czech Republic in 1997 and in Hungary in 1999. Dr. Eder specialises in projects & finance law and regularly advises international clients of all backgrounds and commercial sectors including banks, investment groups, construction and infrastructure companies, manufacturers and telecommunication companies.

Among other areas of expertise, he has longstanding experience in corporate, financing and infrastructure projects with cross-border elements in the CEE region. He is regularly advising bidders in large scale infrastructure procurement procedures, corporate and commercial banks on investment projects, mergers and acquisitions, project finance, international contractual law, data protection law and banking secrecy, telecommunications and electronic data processing.

Dr. Stefan Eder is the managing partner of DLA Weiss-Tessbach, an international commercial law firm with its seat in Austria and offices and attorneys in Vienna, Salzburg, Budapest, Bratislava, Prague, Moscow, Sarajevo and Zagreb.

Since October 2003 DLA Weiss-Tessbach is a fully integrated part of the international British law firm DLA and of the DLA Group with more than 2,350 lawyers in 21 countries and 37 major cities in Europe and Asia.