

Volunteering at the Institute of the Regions of Europe (IRE) in Salzburg

Are you interested in volunteering at the Institute of the Regions of Europe?

If you fulfil the following requirements, you can apply to us.

Who may apply?	Students of European universities and technical colleges
Duration:	Four weeks, full-time
Required knowledge:	Knowledge of English (spoken and written), MS Office and an interest in Europe

Your tasks shall include the following:

- Assistance in the organisation of expert conferences and other events;
- Carrying out of specific research;
- Production of a written assignment on a region-specific theme

Upon completing the period of volunteering, the volunteers shall receive a certificate for the work experience.

Due to the high number of inquiries, we would ask you to submit your application early to: office@ire.or.at